

FRIGHT ON FORTHILL

Step into a winding twilight trail where every turn pulls you deeper into the world of the uncanny. Shadows stretch, lanterns flicker, and the air hums with the feeling that something is watching!

THE SPIDER CORNER

A narrow passage draped in webs, where giant spiders cling to branches overhead. Their glowing eyes follow you as you move through the sticky, tangled lair, careful not to disturb whatever lurks there.

THE FLOATING GHOSTS

Wispes of pale light drift between the trees, rising and falling as if carried by an unseen breeze. Their hollow faces flicker in and out of view, whispering down the leaves as you pass through.

THE SKELETON GRAVEYARD

Cracked tombstones jut from the earth at crooked angles. Skeletons stand frozen mid-escape, clawing their way out of the soil. Some lean against gravestones, others reach toward the path, forever trapped between life and death.

THE WITCH WORKSHOP

A crooked shack glows with eerie green light. Cauldrons bubble, strange herbs hang from rafters, and half-finished spells crackle in the air. The witch lurks in the shadows, stirring, muttering, and watching.

THE CLOAKED FIGURES

Silent silhouettes line the path, unmoving and hooded. Their faces are hidden, their intentions unclear. As you walk past, you can't tell which ones are watching... and which ones are waiting.

THE GRUESOME GARDEN

Twisted plants writhe from the soil, their colours unnatural and their shapes unsettling. Severed limbs sprout like flowers, and grotesque creatures peek from behind rotting vines. The garden feels alive — and hungry.

THE WAITING SKELETON FAMILY

Why are they waiting or what are they waiting for? Are they fearfully scared or should you be frightened of them!!
